1. What do you think are some of the key issues facing the City in the next 5 to 10 years?

2. Name two things you believe are important to protecting and enhancing the character of San Juan Capistrano.

3. Do you have any property ownerships (other than your home) or any business or personal relationships, which would be considered a conflict of interest in carrying out your responsibilities as a Planning Commissioner?

4. How do you perceive the correct role of the Planning Commission regarding site and architectural reviews of commercial and industrial buildings? Do you feel you can reflect the community's "aesthetics" values in reviewing the design of a building? Why? What are the rights of the property owner/developer that the Planning Commission should respect?

5. As land values continue to increase, so called "affordable housing" becomes more and more difficult to incorporate into the Planning concept. What are your thoughts on this aspect of future planning?

Thank you for your interest in the Planning Commission.
